SUMMER HOME BURNED

PROPERTY OF MR. ERNST GERSTEN-BERG IN RUINS.

Loss Placed at $20,000-Two Thousand Chickens and Four Hundred Ducks Consumed.

The handsome summer residence of Mr. Ernst Gerstenberg at Suitland, Prince George's county, Md., together with much other property nearby, was entirely destroyed by fire between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning. The loss is estimated at $20,000, and a representative of Mr. Gerstenberg, Trains leave 131/2 street and Pennsylvania | the latter being out of the city, said that so far as he knew the property was fully Insured. While the house was totally destroyed the contents, even to the carpets on the floors, were saved by the neighbors who were attracted to the scene. Besides the house there were burned a windmill, with a hundred barrels capacity; 50 incubators, 50 brooders, 2,000 chickens, 400 ducks and a number of houses built for the accommodation of the fowls.

The fire was caused by the explosion of an oil lamp in one of the incubators, and It spread with great rapidity. A bucket brigade was speedily organized, and the people did all in their power to stay the progress of the flames, but in an hour from the time the blaze was discovered nothing remained but a pile of smoldering ruins.

WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE.

Mrs. Bridget Finley Swallows Fatal Dose of Acid.

Mrs. Bridget Finley, fifty-six years old, who kept a saloon at 2009 K street northwest, succeeding her husband, I. I. Finley, B. Latimer, superintendent West End Storage and Auction Co., 22d and P sts. Branch offices n.w. cor. 14th and G sts. and who died several years ago, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by taking carbolic acid. About 2 o'clock in the afternoon Mrs. Finley went to Duckett's drug store on Pennsylvania avenue, carrying with her a glass, in which she wanted the druggist to put some acid. She was waited upon, but the acid was put in a bottle in-An unoccupied house on 7th street southstead of in the glass, and the sale was registered. Returning to the house the woman entered the bath room, where she transferred the acid from the bottle to a tin vessel and then swallowed it. From the bath room she went to her sleeping apartment, passing her young daughter, but saying nothing to her.

Shortly after 3 o'clock a member of the family found the dying woman lying on the bed. The family physician was summoned, but was unable to save the patient's life. Coroner Nevitt investigated the case later in the day and decided that the acid was taken with suicidal intent. He gave a certificate of death accordingly.

Airs. Finley was a native of Ireland, but had lived in this country the greater part of her life, having been a resident of this city about forty years, during which time she accumulated considerable wealth. Her funeral will be private.

Protests Against Assessment.

Henry Calver has written to the District Commissioners protesting against the assessment made against his property for a new curb in front of 1721 P street northwest. He says the curb removed was in perfect condition, and at the time it was taken up he objected. Continuing, he said: with copies of the acts of Congress under which this assessment purports to be authorized. As the assessment becomes a charge upon the property, which I understand may be sold to pay the charge, it appears to me to be unconstitutional. as it is nothing more nor less than taking private property for public use without empensation.

superior to the old curb, and when it is considered that the property has the benefit of the new pavement without any further expense to it than half the cost of the curb in front of it it is believed that the complainant has received what citizens in most other cities of the country would consider very liberal treatment.
